There was a coming out party of sorts at Spaghetтини Rotisserie and Grill here Thursday. The occasion, an appearance by Orange County-based keyboardist Peggy Duquesnel, marked the first night of the restaurant's new five-day-a-week jazz policy in its adjoining lounge. In addition, it was also a well-deserved showcase for Duquesnel's compositional skills. The pianist, who's worked for such notables as Leslie Uggams, the Platters and guitarist Phil Upchurch, is familiar to O.C.
